1. In angular services are _____classes .
    a) component
    b) Partial
    c) reusable
    d) none of the above

 Ans:c

2. Advantages of using services
    a) easy to unit-test
    b) reusable
    c) reduce programmer burden
    d) all the above

 Ans:d

3. When we are using @Injectable then what should we have to use?
    a) {}
    b) <>
    c) []
    d) ()

 Ans:d

4. Which one is used to Import the Injectable Member
    a) import { Injectable } from '@angular/core';
    b) @Inject()
    c) Injectable()
    d) 'app/services/injectables'

 Ans:a

5. Writing the 'ng generate service myservicename' in the command prompt then what will generate?
    a) myservicename.service.js
    b) inject.service.ts
    c) myservicename.service.ts
    d) app.component.myservicename.ts

Ans:c

6. Which one is correct statement for Register a Logger Service as provider in an NgModule

    a) import { Logger } from './logger.service'
    b) import { service }from './logger.service'
    c) import { NgLoggerModule, Level } from '@nsalaun/ng-logger';
    d) import { BrowserModule }   from '@angular/platform-browser';

Ans:a

7. How many ways we have for processing asynchronous operations.
    a) 3
    b) 2
    c) 1
    d) 6

Ans:b

8. JSONP request is mainly used for_____

    a) Cross domain requests
    b) Fetches data from server without refreshing page
    c) More flexibility to our application
    d) Parallel browser requests

Ans:a